•□□□□□□□ Timelines on these types of efforts
Kristen answers a technical question from Richard.
• □ □ □ □ □ □ □ Past- We are now discovering that REIs remediation did harm to the site. The remediation system drew contamination down into the aquifer producing an area of free product (gas/oil on soil cuttings) at a depth well below the water table. This contamination is much more difficult and incredibly more expensive to investigation and remediate. A simple cleanup project has become much more complicated because of REIs action.

•	REI did harm in the past
1)	Drew contamination to depth with a remediation system
2)	Illegally discharge contamination into Haskell lake
	In the Present- Supplemental EPA work was not implemented because REI did not ide data
	Discuss Tribal Site Investigation Requirement and EPA Corrective Action airement-
	Looking Forward Future- We will need a Site Investigation Plan and a Complete Investigation to then evaluate Remedial Alternatives.
	Small isolated scopes of work are not building a Site Investigation – give a couple uples- then use a metaphor of small isolated scopes of work on a dart board.
for S	Would like to see access to State funds, but uncertain how that is possible- Needs ite Investigation, Coooperative Interim Action (need EPA for some aspects of source oval-disposal costs, etc), Coordination with Other BIA USGS work, are not fitting with REI
Dee a	answers question from Richard

Richard
• • • • • Looking at Agenda and invited parties- this appears to be a show
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
• • • • • Based on technical, there is a chance to make this work
• • • • • • With no plan going forward, meeting now with this level of uncertainty is unproductive
Eric

Sherry
•□□□□□□□ DNR felt strongly that REI and Kozaks be present.

• □ □ □ □ □ For the Technical part- introduce Kozak and REI component
• □ □ □ □ □ □ Excuse REI and Kozak Then continue on meeting
Richard
• • • • • Federal Jurisdiction- willing to draft speaking points for federal jurisdiction statement
Eric

• □ □ □ □ □ □ Margaret is prepared and willing to make federal jurisdiction statement
Richard
• • • • • • For this to have any benefit- technical dealt with in advance of meeting
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
Bob
• □ □ □ □ □ □ All data has been shared with Tribe and State
• □ □ □ □ □ Bob Gets VERY upset and talks about his 30 years of experience and disagrees with a Site Investigation Approach. Takes Issue with dartboard metaphor.
Richard/Eric
An Interim Conference call is planned that includes
• □ □ □ □ □ □ Bob- A short summary about what we know about the site- this paragraph is all that Bob can prepare because he will be in the field for the next three weeks.
•□□□□□□□ Kristen- A powerpoint about what is known about the site
• □ □ □ □ □ □ This will be used for an approach going forward
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
•□□□□□□□□ Bob won't be able to share his summary until the 18 th

Confidential Attorney-Client Communication

Dear Kristen

Thanks for preparing the proposed agenda. I think that we need to state the obvious (at least to us) that we need both a short term and a long term RCRA-UST Program strategy.

The jurisdictional distraction—which results from EPA's inconsistent messaging is not in the Tribe's best interests and certainly does little to either advance EPA's Indian Policy or further the State's understanding of the proper role of the LDF Band as a sovereign government.

To the extent that EPA's implementation of the short term strategy--of using State funds--displaces or diminishes the long term strategy toward the State's recognition of LDF sovereignty, the short term strategy is unacceptable as it has apparently served to embolden the State.

We should ask whether EPA is satisfied with the current situation. And, if not--what EPA plans to do now that plan "A" has not worked.

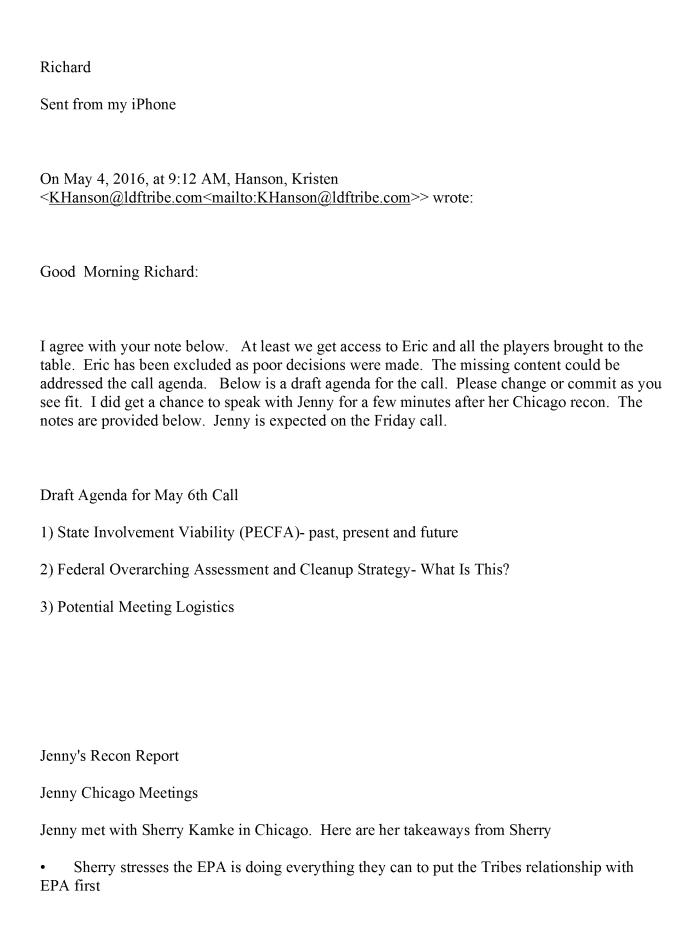

In my view, we should use this "consultation" opportunity to inform EPA that it is the position of the LDF Band that there is no valid reason why EPA did not follow proper procedure (under the Administrative Procedure Act) and require the State to submit its RCRA UST program to EPA for approval and delegation. In practical effect, by not taking such action EPA acted beyond the scope of its statutory authority by doing so, failed to define its, and the LDF's proper role in the RCRA statutory scheme.

As a result, EPA has undermined the ability of the Tribal UST program to effectively protect human health and the quality of the reservation environment.

This is a serious matter that needs to be addressed sooner rather than latter. I expect that Region 5 does not want further criticism of its leadership failures, but it may well be time to play that card.

Let me know if you what your reaction is to our taking a hard line with EPA and if the Team would like to schedule a short internal call prior to our call on Friday with EPA.

Take care,

- There is some communication struggles- There are so many levels of communication- Bob is communicating with Tribal Staff, Larry is communicating with Margaret, Sherry is left out.
- EPA has offered EPA-Tribe 2 way technical calls and the offer was turned down by the Tribe
- Removing the State from the process will slow the project to a "glacier pace"
- Sherry was surprised by Jenny's questions, and thinks EPA is effectively communicating with the Tribe

Jenny Met with Eric Olson and Kasey Ambutus

- Jenny sighs when she names Kasey, the conversation may have been hampered by Kasey's presence
- Eric has a more realistic understanding of the programs shortcomings
- All Eric can do is advise his client to take a more aggressive approach
- Eric thinks a EPA-Tribe 2way MOU would be good
- Eric says that the LUST program's deep desire to use state fund is driving a lot of interaction with the State

Jenny's big Picture

- Jenny thinks there needs to be a Federal Overarching Assessment and Cleanup Strategy-EPA needs to take the lead
- A better understanding of how to work together i.e. MOU
- Sherry mentioned several times that the Tribe turned down the 2 way update calls.

Dear Clients:
We are set for the EPA call. Erik's note is consistent with my conversation with him, but does not go far enough with regard to EPA's obligation under RCRA and under its trust responsibility to the Tribe.
Let me know what you guys think.
